

What type of resource do you want to use in Perusall?

Published article or book chapter

Does the library have a suitable license to use this material?

To check, please follow the instructions here:
<https://www.waikato.ac.nz/elearning-resources/perusall/using-perusall>

No

Unfortunately, you will not be able to use this resource in Perusall

Website

If you use websites within Perusall the copyright issues are the same as using them in a PowerPoint or written document:
https://www.waikato.ac.nz/_data/assets/pdf_file/0003/208911/uow_copyright_guidelines_April2009.pdf

Yes

Good - you can use this resource in Perusall. Please remove it at the end of your course

Is it in your Waikato Reading List?

An image

If you use images within Perusall the copyright issues are the same as using them in a PowerPoint or written document – make sure you use either open-source images or get permission from the owner.

Yes

Good – you can now upload this resource to Perusall.

YouTube or other video

Is it available in eTV?

Yes

Then use this version

No

You can still use such resources if you consider the copyright considerations:
https://www.waikato.ac.nz/_data/assets/pdf_file/0018/212166/uow_copyright_guidelines_mp3.pdf

No

Ok – please request that this resource be added to your Waikato Reading List (email readinglists@waikato.ac.nz).

Then you can upload this resource to Perusall.